

Frida Kahlo is considered Mexico's greatest artistic export. Kahlo is best known for her bold and bright self-portraits that deal with themes such as life, identity and the human body.